Collection Summary

Collection Number:	Unassigned
Repository:	University of Massachusetts Lowell, Center for Lowell History, Lowell, MA
Creator(s):	Jack Kerouac, John Sampas
Title:	Visions of Kerouac: The John Sampas Collection
Dates:	1922-2009
Extent:	100 boxes, oversized material
Language(s):	Collection materials are in English, French, and other languages.

Scope and Content Note

Donated by John Sampas's estate to the University of Massachusetts Lowell in 2018, Visions of Kerouac is the most extensive collection in the Jack Kerouac Archives. Among the items and records are original artifacts, photographs, multimedia items, original and photostatic copies of Kerouac's art, correspondence, journals, as well as books (English and international editions).

Biographical History

Following Stella Sampas Kerouac's 1990 death, the Sampas family appointed her youngest brother John Sampas (1933-2017) as literary representative for the Estate of Jack and Stella Kerouac. Sampas continued promoting Kerouac's legacy literary legacy until his own death.

Arrangement

Following Jack Kerouac's arrangement of his personal archive with the addition of series numbers, the records are arranged by cabinet, drawer, series, and box number. The series are:

Series 1. Original Kerouac Items and Records

Series 2. Photostatic Copies of Kerouac Material

Series 3. Items and Records created Posthumously, from Estate, or 3rd Party Sources

Series 4. Kerouac's Notebooks

Access and Use

Conditions Governing Access: Some material is restricted per the Jack Kerouac Estate. Permission to access restricted files must be approved, in writing, by the Kerouac Estate and presented prior to research appointment.

Phys. Access Restrictions: Some records and items are fragile and require special handling.
